

Tri County Women's Centre
Therapeutic Counsellor
(term, part time)

The Tri County Women's Centre is a community based, feminist agency that provides support counseling, advocacy services, and programs to women and adolescent girls.

The Centre is seeking to hire a Therapeutic Counsellor to deliver support groups for those who use substances in the tri counties.

Skills and background:

- Master's level education and experience in social work, psychology or other adult counselling and registration with the appropriate regulatory body
- Education and experience in addiction and trauma related practice
- Understanding of and experience with feminist theory and practice
- Able to work independently and as part of a team
- Time management, communication and organization skills
- Problem solving skills
- Able to complete basic computer tasks

This is a part time (24.5 hrs/wk, with some flexibility) position based in Digby, Shelburne and Yarmouth counties, Nova Scotia. This is a term position, until July 2021. The successful candidate will require a criminal record check, child abuse registry check, and access to reliable transportation.

The Tri County Women's Centre is an equitable employer. Self-identification is welcome.

Estimated start date: January 28, 2019

Only those chosen for an interview will be contacted.

Application deadline: December 21, 2018 4:00pm (Atlantic)

For more information: 902-742-0085 or 1-877-742-0085

Please send cover letter and resume to the Hiring Committee:
lisanne@tricountywomenscentre.org
12 Cumberland St. Yarmouth NS B5A 3K3